

I am becoming more and more concerned about democracy in the USA. The recent decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just prior to the election is a perfect example of the dangers of media consolidation. Public airwaves should serve public interest in whatever way best serves democracy. We deserve news about issues that matter NOW. We must trust FCC to protect us from media misuse. Please do so. Thank you.